Asians expect total US collapse by summer

When a bow hunter hunts an elephant, they shoot an arrow into its' heart but do not approach it for at least 24 hours. That is because even though it is mortally wounded, it can still kill you in a hundred different ways before it dies. That is how Asians view the Khazarian Mafia-controlled West, they are sure it will collapse but will stay away until it does. "The super-wealthy Chinese are anticipating a collapse in the US by this summer. They are buying physical gold and dumping more Treasury bonds via an intermediary," a Singapore-based Chinese source says.

In a sign he is aware of this, US President Donald Trump has been trying to trade US external debt and foreign-held US government bonds for 100-year Treasury certificates that yield zero interest but is not finding any buyers, Asian secret society sources say.

Many people are now comparing what is happening in the West to the fall of the Soviet Union. "Let us recall: in 1989, [Soviet leader] Mikhail Gorbachev… decided to reduce state spending. He abruptly stopped aid to the USSR's allies and gave everyone their freedom. Simultaneously, the East Germans toppled the Berlin Wall, while the Poles elected members of Solidarity to the Diet and the Senate," notes French journalist Thierry Meyssan. Eventually, the atheist Soviet Union itself collapsed and was replaced by Christian Russia.

It is clear from events on the ground that what we are going to witness in the West is the collapse of the EU followed by the collapse of the US.

What we are seeing on this front now is a desperate attempt by Jean Michel de Rothschild - known to the public as Brigitte Macron- to circle the wagons with his puppet leaders. This was seen in a summit of 25 world leaders attended by France's Emmanuel Macron, Germany's Fried Rich Merz, Canada's Mark Carney, the UK's Keir Starmer and the EU's Ursula von der Leyen to discuss a "coalition of the willing" to fight on in Ukraine.

The French Rothschild is promising to protect these countries with Frances nuclear-armed submarines. Canada's Mark Carney –his newest puppet- immediately went to visit his master in France after being illegally installed as leader of Canada.

He was rewarded with a French nuclear submarine docking in Halifax.

Carney has to ask France for nuclear protection from Trump because the UK's nuclear arsenal cannot be used without US approval.

By the way, de Rothschild is naïve if he thinks his nuclear submarines make any difference. A US Space Force source says "The Space Force is aware of every move the Deep State players make. If they try using nuclear missiles to protect their puppets, the French submarines will be vaporized from space using special laser weapons that the Space Force controls"

Getting back to Carney, Canadian TV commentator Ezra Levant notes 400,000 people voted in the Liberal party election that put him in power but 250,000 of those votes were rejected for no reason.

“He doesn’t think of the world in terms of Canada. He thinks of the world in terms of a globalist project run by the World Economic Forum,” says Ezra. “My speculation is that Mark Carney is going deliberately to Europe, not to the United States, because he’s actually going to build a World Economic Forum coalition, an anti-Trump, anti-American coalition.”

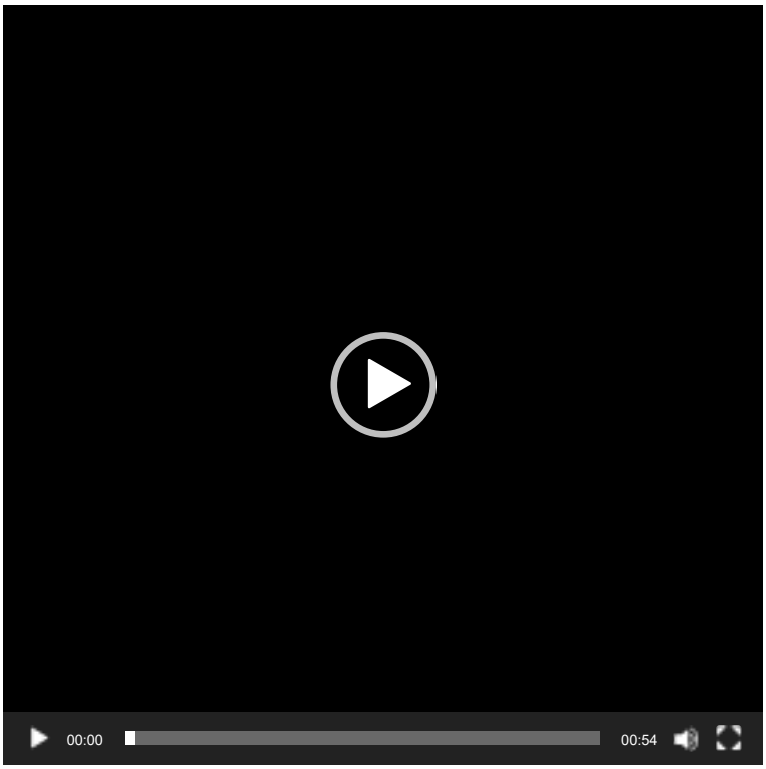
Another person warning about Carney is former UK Prime Minister Liz Truss as you can see in the video below.



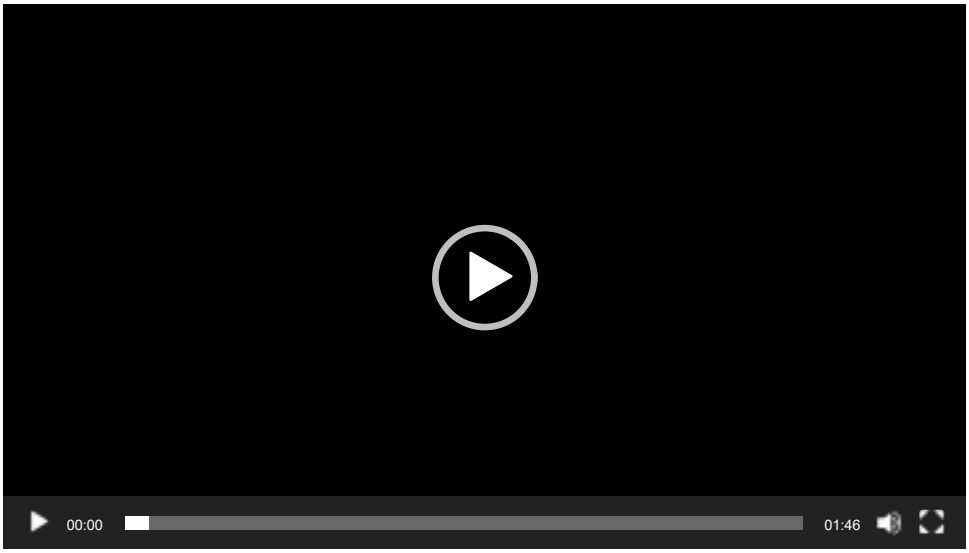
We are also hearing he has a secret life as a drag queen.

Also, here you can see him chilling with Ghislaine Maxwell of Epstein Island fame.

Carney is also buddies with John Podesta Rockefeller.

In a nod to his master, Carney says he will visit France and the UK on his first overseas trip on the job, adding that he currently has “no plans” to meet Trump but “looks forward” to speaking to him

Also, now the Canadian government is considering canceling/delaying elections “because of Trump’s tariffs.” Why don’t they mention the more extreme tariffs China just implemented?



The problem with the anti-Trump anti-democratic coalition of puppets like Carney is that they are toothless and bankrupt. Trump has no intention of protecting this coalition and, in his latest outburst, he said "The European Union is very, very nasty."

The European Ruling Class is in desperate trouble and increasingly isolated, in a world shifting 'Rightward' at breakneck speed. "The U.S. is now the enemy of the West", the FT proclaims. European leaders wantonly won't understand. says Alastair Crooke

Absent US protection, Russian Federation Council Speaker Valentina Matviyenko comments:

The idea of common European security without the participation of Russia and Belarus is a fantasy. Everyone understands this,…They boldly announced to the world: 'We will allocate 800 billion euros for armaments to support Ukraine.' What billions are they referring to, and where will they find the funding? Germany and France are grappling with significant budget deficits. They are cutting benefits and preferences for various segments of the population, while unemployment is on the rise.

Realizing their helplessness, the EU has been sending multiple delegations to Turkey asking for their protection. Of course, the Turks, having been jilted in their attempts to join the EU, are relishing their new power. However, while the Turks might make a few lucrative arms deals, they cannot and will not take on the Russians and Americans to protect the EU.

EU moves to woo the Chinese are also failing. Chinese President Xi Jinping has refused to travel to Brussels for a summit marking the 50th anniversary of China-EU diplomatic relations. It looks like Xi Jinping is thumbing his nose at the EU. Meaning he is with Putin and Trump.

China's stance, through its' Global Civilization Initiative (GCI) stresses tolerance, coexistence, exchanges and mutual learning among different civilizations play an irreplaceable role in advancing humanity's modernization process when the future of all countries is closely connected.

The would-be enslavers of humanity, the French de Rothschilds (as opposed to the English under Nathaniel who are with Trump) now have one last nasty card they are going to try to play. While the world has been distracted by Western political theater, a battle has been taking place that could decide the fate of most of the world's population. The French Rothschilds are hoping to starve the majority of humanity by
